2 Timothy 1:13-18: 2nd Letter of Paul to Timothy

On Those that are Worthy Versus Those that are Unworthy of God's Mercy

Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, (Hold to the standard of sound teaching) in the faith and love that are (found) in Christ He's Us.

Guard the good treasure entrusted to you,

(Guard the good treasure) with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

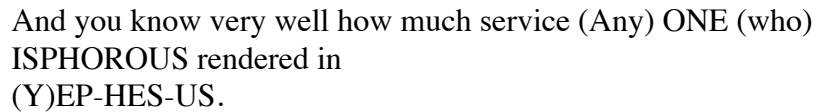

May the Lord grant mercy to the household of (Any) ONE (who) ISPHOROUS, because (those showing that impulse) often refreshed me and (were)
(were) not ashamed of my chain;

When (Any) ONE (who) ISPHOROUS arrived in Rome,
(Any) ONE (who) ISPHOROUS eagerly searched for me and found me.

May the Lord grant that (Any) ONE (who) ISPHOROUS will find mercy from the Lord on that day!

"He provides food for those who fear him; he is ever mindful of his covenant.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who practice (fearing the Lord, God) have a good understanding (of the way of being led by heaven to yield heaven on earth).

In this community thanksgiving, an individual calls upon the whole world to acknowledge God's rescue of the people from danger.

"Come and see what God has done: he is awesome in his deeds among mortals. He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot.

There we rejoiced in him (God), who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations - let the rebellions not exalt themselves.

Sign 19 - I am Keeping a Constant Watch Over the Way of Being Led by Heaven and Yielding Heaven on Earth

I am serving the wisdom of Heaven's Leading Impulse by Providing Clean Nourishment to, and Pruning the Growth of, Earth's Heavenly Yield				I am serving the wisdom of Heaven's Leading Impulse by Harvesting in the Produce of, and Growing the Roots of, Earth's Heavenly Yield				I am serving the wisdom of Heaven's Leading Impulse by Stretching Firm or Loosening of, and Storing and Using the Spirit of, Earth's Heavenly Yield

Jeremiah 25:1-14: Judah's (joo'duh) Fate Among the Nations (Seventy Years of Exile)

Judah's fate became a part of unfolding world events. Its destruction here is placed in cosmic perspective as God's wrath is directed against all nations, and finally judged against Babylon itself.

I have spoken persistently to you but you have not listened.

And though the Lord persistently sent you all his servants the prophets, you have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear when they said 'Turn now, every one of you, from your evil way and wicked doings, and you will remain upon the land that the Lord has given to you and your ancestors from of old and forever;

do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, and do not provoke me to anger with the works of your hands.

... Yet you did not listen to me, ... and so you have provoked me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

I am going to send for ... King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these nations around;

I will utterly destroy them, and make them an object of horror and of hissing, and an everlasting disgrace.

(All beings are subject to God's will.)(What kind of God are the people creating? A peaceful God or an angry God?)(God's power is identified as able to reward and to punish - hence we have a fear of the consequences that the all-powerful has over the world if we are not serving the right gods in our own life.)

Notes: Nebuchadrezzar is the only non-Israelite identified as God's servant in the Hebrew bible see also 27.6; 43.10 and Isaiah 44.28-45.13)

... This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

Then after 70 years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their inequity, says the Lord.

Jeremiah 27.6: Now I have given all these lands into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him even the wild animals of the field to serve him.

(God's power is almighty. Satan does not have the power to defeat God, but God does have the power to willingly let his servants be led astray and into the hands of Satan's grasp. God gives people free will to abide by God's almighty protection, or to abandon that wisdom for their own reasonings.)(If the people are not using the power of God, then the power of God is not being brought into the world and the almighty power over us turns to punishment for failing to abide by the way of being led by heaven to yield heaven on earth)(Leading ourselves to hell)

Jeremiah 43.10: I am going to send and take my servant King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, and he will set his throne above these stones that I have buried, and he will spread his royal canopy over them. He shall come and ravage the land of Egypt, giving those who are destined for pestilence to pestilence, and those who are destined for captivity, to captivity, and those who are destined for the word, the sword.

(Almighty power is beyond the power of humans to change by their own wishful hopes and dreams, and prayers. Only God can save them now.)(Hence, the need to turn back to the way of yielding heaven on earth by being led by heaven; instead of yielding hell on earth by being led by Satan's reasoning and grasp)

Leviticus 14:33-53: Surface affliction as divine punishment in houses

When you come into the land: in the narrative, the Israelites are living in the wilderness camp, they therefore do not currently live in houses.
